

Twenty-two-year-old Tenor Elijah Henderson was born May 16, 2000, in Charlotte, North Carolina, and has been shaped by his community. Mr. Henderson is well versed in several skills, including being fluent in German, piano, bass, and several other brass instruments. He completed his undergraduate degree in Vocal Performance at Wingate University. He has performed Bach B minor and Requiem by Durufle. He has also toured South Africa with the Wingate Music Ambassadors under the direction of Dr. Kenney Potter. He is also the principal Pianist for the 208th Army Reserve Band. In the fall of 2021, Mr. Henderson played the leading role of "the Artist Martinez" in the world premiere of the opera "Behold the Man." Currently, Mr. Henderson is working on a vast array of compositions. Mr. Henderson aspires to perform internationally and share his various interests in music.

Elijah Henderson

Graduate Assistant

